PASSIONATELY EMBRACING HOSPITALITY EDUCATION AND TRAINING THROUGH INNOVATION AND DISTINCTION

This is the motto of the Capital Hotel School (CHS) that opened its doors in January 2001 in Pretoria. Our mission is to offer relevant and current accredited hospitality education and training programmes to school leavers and employed staff; empowering aspiring and qualified chefs and hospitality management candidates to get employment, advance their skill set and excel in the workplace.

OUR VALUES

CHS prides itself on its high standards of excellence and exceptional reputation within the hospitality industry. Our diverse mix of cultures, races and experiences provide a variety of perspectives and talents that strengthen our ability to assist our learners to achieve their goals.

INTEGRITY  GENEROSITY  HUMILITY  FUN  CREATIVITY

VISION

To further expand our education and training footprint in South Africa and neighbouring countries within the next five years, powered by technology and delivered by the best facilitators, formally entering into select strategic partnerships with companies and accreditation bodies that can associate themselves with our purpose and values.

PURPOSE

Our purpose holds owners and their affiliates, employees and learners accountable to invest in community projects, to promote a greener civilisation and subscribe to a high code of ethics while enjoying a rewarding work environment that invests in human capital.

We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors; we borrow it from our children

– An ancient proverb
THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY

The hospitality industry has experienced tremendous growth and currently ranks as one of the world’s largest industries and offers a wide range of career opportunities - enough to satisfy almost everyone’s aspirations!

This industry includes hotels, restaurants, cruise liners, sport arenas and entertainment centres, casinos, golf and other sport clubs, event planning, catering, bed and breakfast accommodation, game lodges, holiday resorts and many more workplace options to choose from.
